

The pulpit of the chapel, at the Seaman's Bethel, on Johnny Cake Hill, New Bedford, Massachusetts, is shaped like the bow of a ship. The Bethel was built in 1831 and was the landmark for homecoming whalers. Herman Melville's "Moby Dick" immortalized the story of the Whalers.
M-9

One of a series of "HISTORAMA"® full color Post Cards, Booklets, Slides of Historic Massachusetts. Write for complete catalog. © 1968 Yankee Colour Corp., Southborough, Mass.

1775—American Revolution Bicentennial—1975

place
stamp
here 28683

An HISTORAMA®
Post Card

ADDRESS